Dedication

5 Minutes break

& a cup of coffee

Sitting here to a table alone

Music is nourishing my soul through my sound recorder,

Eyes are scanning the entire faces pass beyond my border,

And I remember,

Bits and pieces of my life..

Good times, bad times

Shattered moments

Sins, mistakes

Joyful moments

People I've met and still do come across

A very weird life

Twenty two years have passed

So full of glorious moments

And regrettable ones

Yet I have a sense of pride towards what I'm

What I've been and what I've become

And I remember

Those who have had and still have an impact on my life,

Deep within me

I thank them for every second and every priceless moment

we shared

A smile draws up on my face as my eyes shine bright

And a tear slides slowly down my cheek, to catch the candle light

For now I'm closing a chapter

To open a brand new one

For the ink of my pen

Shall never run dry

Until the day

The blood within my veins will dry

A flash of weakness

I look up at the sky to find the answer

I look down to the grass to find a clue

Nothing's there

And I feel blue

Lost..

Confused..

And torn

Like a dry leaf on a hot summer's day

*I'm easy to crush
And blown away
Sarcastic life can be
When it comes to me
Making me a fool
Running from a bee
I'll just sit here accepting my fate
Watch the sun go down
All I do is waiting
Nothing really matters not even myself
I'm just a clown can 't u see
A clown withz a mask
To hide his tears*

And forget his past

Oh well

What's worth saying all that

It's all been said before

And that is that

I'll just sit here

Not knowing where to be

I'll pick up a stick and walk the way

And hoping one day

This may pay

* * *

A man in love

To be with you forever is a dream

A dream I hope one day will be true

I pray to God for it to be

It's the dream of "you and me"

The dream of our future

Of happiness and glory

The dream of love story

The story we've just started

Wishing for a happy ending

With you I know it can be

I know our love is meant to be

I love you today

I'll love you tomorrow

My love will be always with no regret or sorrow

With a heart open wide

With a straight honest mind

And a pure clean soul

Now and forever I want you to know

That my love for you will always grow

A moment

The touch of the wind

Blows through my hair

The whispers of the woods

Enchant my ears

The dances of the seas

Please my eyes

And all I can see is the world before me

Passing by like a flash

So quick

Yet so slow

So mysterious

Yet so explained

So obscure

Yet so clear

I see through the eyes of many

The different colors of life

Misery and happiness

All the colors are clear

All is clear

And all is near

The smiles and cries

Are all I hear

I'll find the way

And move on with my life

I'll grow stronger with my belief in life

I'll grow patient with my Faith in God

And I know my life will go on

A step to life

Have you ever seen the light?

Have you ever touched a star?

Have you ever lead a life?

That goes beyond the far

The far and unexplainable

Things that hard to reach

Dream of every being

*Reaching their outreach Touching the hearts of many Feeling other 's emotion
Bringing a smile to the sad ones
As a happiness potion
Life! Such a contradiction!
This mighty helper person
Can never help himself!
I've locked within myself
And try my best to be
The best person I want to be
I look at myself
My life and my beliefs*

I figure if I go without them

Then why am I here?

Share your dreams and think of them

You can reach them

If you stand up

If you believe in them

If you fight for them

Let your heart be guided by your mind

And let your soul draw you the path

Don't look at me

For one day I may not be around

To help you out and stand ground

You have to fight for everything you have

Eyes on life.

Tarek Refaat

I'll try my best to help you

As long as I'm around my hand is always there

But you have to take your step

Your step to life

A thought for a second

Opening my eyes

To the cruel world of today

With a lot of scars

And blood wasted away

I'm fighting my way to find the light

I seek the truth

To not be blind

My faith is my shield

My prayers are my hope

I gather up my shield and sword

And keep on fighting

I hear the angels whispering me

To keep on going

No matter what goes on

Never loose hope

As a sudden light shines up on me

My wounds heal

The bleeding stops

I feel the power

The energy of life

My eyes shine bright

As my sword slashes through evil

Decapitating it from its roots

I shout and cry out

Evil shall die... even if it will take my entire existence

As I keep on fighting

I shall never give up no matter what it takes

Even if it takes my being

Eyes on life

Poetry

Open your eyes
Do you see? do you hear?
At last you find everything clear
There's no more pain
And all to gain
And you fly up along with the heart of your sword.
